

Executive Proclamation
State of South Dakota
Office of the Governor

Whereas, public employees dedicate their careers to public service by contributing to such industries as healthcare, education, public safety, and conservation; and,

Whereas, these dedicated public servants perform their duties with compassion, professionalism, and commitment to those they serve; and,

Whereas, the importance of the service provided by public employees is often overlooked; and,

Whereas, it is appropriate to designate "State Employee Recognition Day" to honor and recognize all state employees and remind all citizens of South Dakota of the importance of public service; and,

Whereas, South Dakota is honored to join states across the nation in extending our appreciation and gratitude to all public employees for their continued dedication:

Now, Therefore, I, Kristi Noem, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 1, 2022, as in South Dakota.

STATE EMPLOYEE RECOGNITION DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this twenty-first day of April in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Twenty-Two.

Kristi Noem, Governor

Attest:

Steven J. Barnett, Secretary of State
